VI. REPORT OF THE PRESIDENT

President Jolly A. delos Santos was given the floor and rendered the following report:

The President started her report by welcoming everyone to the 2nd Annual General Meeting of KGI-MBA. The proceeding will pave the way for the election of the current Board of Trustees successors who are bound to continue fostering the long-term success of the institution.

Mrs. delos Santos recalled that she is so blessed to be part of the board as member representative and took part in securing the registration and license of KGI-MBA with the Securities and Exchange Commission and Insurance Commission.

At this juncture President delos Santos is very honored to present the significant achievements of KGI-MBA for the 2014-2015.

That KGI-MBA has maintained its good standing in terms of legal perspective and remained compliant with the government regulating agencies such as Bureau of Internal Revenue, Securities and Exchange Commission and Insurance Commission thru the effort and dedication of the management.

That another remarkable achievements of KGI-MBA is the renewal of license to operate as a MBA from the Insurance Commission for the period 2014 to 2015.

That thru the said license the member's welfare and their dependents are secured and protected. The members are relieved from worrying so much about their financial burdens in time of worst-case scenario or medical emergency situation, because KGI-MBA will uphold its commitment to provide life and health insurance to cover the member and their dependents from various risks as the institution continue to live with its tagline "Pamilya ay Nakaseguro, Benepisyo ay Sigurado".

President delos Santos gave an insight that in October 20-23, 2014 assessment was made to the institution by using the standards for MBA. KGI-MBA scored 78.5% out of 100%. This was facilitated under the program of RIMANSI and Mr. Ed Garcia is the evaluator.

The assessment showed that as a newly establish institution, KGI-MBA has certain areas needed to improve on its performance. The President believed that with the unified effort and continued support to the institution, KGI-MBA can polish up the operational performance towards efficiency.

The President stressed that the continuous decline in number of membership affects the evaluation of KGI-MBA and may result for not reaching the operational standard for MBA.

Mrs. delos then encouraged the board to be proactive in promotion and recruitment of members to safeguard KGI-MBA 's competitiveness and financial health.

In continuation, President delos Santos discussed that aside from Basic Life Insurance Plan (BLIP) offered by KGI-MBA, the institution wanted to ensure that the capital borrowed by the members are adequately protected thru Credit Life Insurance Plan or CLIP.

Mrs. delos Santos highlighted the importance of Credit Life Insurance Plan. That in the event that the member dies prior to repayment of the debt, the loan will be paid off in full by the CLIP insurance. The balance of the amount outstanding will be given to KGI (creditor) thus, KGI is spared from seeking payment from the debtor's family and the amount paid by the members will be repaid to her family.

That for the year 2014, KGI-MBA has a total released of P 2,094,000.00 benefits for death claims and Hospital Bills and Reimbursement Benefits (HBRB) which is broken down as follows:

DEATH CLAIMS			HBRB CLAIMS
		AMOUNT			AMOUNT
MEMBERS	26		MEMBERS	467
SPOUSE	46		SPOUSE	156
CHILDREN	6		CHILDREN	216
Total & Permanent Disability (Spouse)		P5,000

In addition, the institution provided P 3,920,477.48 for equity value of resigned or quitted members.

President delos Santos expressed that as the first President from the member representatives, the task is very daunting. That Mrs. delos Santos had no idea on how to preside with the board meeting plus she had to deal with the executives of KGI and KGI-MBA. However, through the support and guidance of the KGI and KGI-MBA management, Mrs. delos Santos successfully administered the institution and felt comfortable in the board proceedings.

To end her report, the President expressed heartfelt gratitude to KGI and KGI-MBA management for the unwavering support and bid a hopeful and optimistic message for the institutions.

Upon motion made by Trustee Dra. Magdalena Bautista duly seconded and approved by the members assembled, the Board unanimously approved:

XI. MESSAGES S FROM THE BOARD OF ADVISERS

President/CEO Marlou Concepcion acknowledged the service, loyalty and contribution of the outgoing Board of Trustees to KGI-MBA. Appreciation is likewise bestowed to the MBAC who are diligently performed their responsibility.

Mr. Concepcion shared the underlying guiding principles to the members of KGI-MBA.

That service is the top priority of KGI-MBA. The institution is committed to provide service: for the protection and welfare of the members and their family as well as to give the members value for their money. KGI-MBA guaranteed that the members will receive corresponding benefits over the premiums they paid for their insurance.

That thru MBACs the members will receive timely and responsive health assistance and benefits. KGI-MBA will ensure that the members will feel that they are important and the institution is sensible to their needs.

That KGI-MBA also recognized the talent, ability and potential of the members geared towards positive result to uplift the condition of their family.

Another principles imparted by the President/CEO are trust and care. That it is imperative that the members have a trust and confidence to the institution and vice-versa. That the members should put a high value on the relationship they trust but, the loyalty of the members should be on the institution and not on their Center Manager or their staff.

343 That KGI understands the needs of the members and continuously discover strategies and 344 programs to deliver wide range of services and benefits to the members.

345 The third principle shared by President/CEO Concepcion is participation. That God has 346 given us unique abilities, talents, and gifts to serve others. That God is testing us to see how we 347 are going to use the talents He gave, if we use that talent to benefit others and not only ourselves.

348 That the institution are working together with the members thru unified efforts, collective 349 thinking and collective action to achieve a common objective. That the institution is for the 350 members and it is owned by the members, because the management is confident that the interest
351 of KGI-MBA can be protected by the members.

352 Mr. Concepcion believed that as long as the faith remains strong—as long as everyone
353 continue serving as each other's strength and has abiding concern to the welfare of others, the body
354 will create the institution of prosperity which is truly deserve by the members.

355 President/CEO Concepcion called for the support and advocacy of MBACs. Mr.
356 Concepcion stated that not only the Board of Trustees are the steward of the organization but also 357 the MBACs. He encouraged the MBACs to be the life and spirit of others. That the MBACs should 358 serve as the light and life-giving to other members.

359 He enjoined the MBACs to be proactive in safeguarding the interest of the institution. That
360 they should proactively involve in safeguarding the interest rate, attendance rate interest, projects
361 and the weekly payment of members.

362 In addition, President/CEO Concepcion envisioned the members to be sustainable and self
363 sufficient. That the members will achieved their aspiration in lives and improve their self-
364 awareness.

365 At this point Executive Director Rianzares expressed gratitude for the steadfast support of 366 the MBACs, the members and the Board of Trustees to KGI-MBA.

367 Mr. Rianzares is delighted with the performance of KGI-MBA as it continue to prosper
368 thru its governing body which is composed mostly of women which is a clear indicators that the 369 institution is on the right track to progress.

370 That another sign that the institution is really progressive is the ability of KGI-MBA to 371 engage the service of SyCip Gorres Velayo & Co. or SGV & Co. which is the Philippines' largest 372 multidisciplinary professional services firm.

373 That as KGI-MBA advances in the next more year, the Executive Director envisioned the 374 institution to become ISO (International Organization of Standardization) certified.

375 That while the institution is enhancing its corporate value the board should not forsake the 376 welfare of the members and the advocacy for the poor. The institution should draw up key
377 programs that extend not only to employees but also to members.

378 That the true meaning of a successful MBA is thru the impact that the institution has made
379 to the lives of the members.

380 Mr. Rianzares delightedly expressed that the biggest accomplishment that the institution
381 has made is the development of member's personality. That board officers who are all members
382 can now able to present their report in front of others. That the knowledge and skills imparted by 383 KGI-MBA to the members are priceless.

384 Senior Operations Director Cortez conveyed a message about cooperation through 385 illustration made using hot and cold shower bulb or faucet.

386 Mr. Cortez emphasized that the leaders can control the outcome of their work. That if a
387 certain staff or center chief did not perform their task in accordance with the system and 388 procedures, the outcome will lead to poor result.

389 That if the institution wanted to have a clear understanding and acceptance on the new
390 products and services it offered, the same should be explained and communicated properly with 391 the members with detailed information on the policy of the said products or services.

392 The Senior Operations Director encouraged the members to show concern or solicitude in 393 promoting the microinsurance products. That the members should assist the staff in the branches
394 in the promotion of products and services of KGI and KGI-MBA.

395 Operations Director Guiang congratulated the leadership of President delos Santos and 396 other officers of the board in administering the organization. That the institution successfully 397 empowered the members.

Mr. Guiang illustrated the vital relationship exist between KGI and KGI-MBA. That being a member of both KGI and KGI-MBA, the MBACs should reciprocate their obligations both to the two institutions.

The Operations Director in conjunction with the performance rating of the institution challenged the members to assist KGI and KGI-MBA in terms of recognizing new members.

Finance Director Tactaquin mentioned the achievement of the present board considering that composition of officers are mostly member's representative.

Mr. Tactaquin also stressed the importance of supporting both the two institutions. That the concern on the 2nd term of the board is the continuity of the operation especially in the number of member's recognition.

That the MBACs should act as agent in multiplying the recruitment of members in confronting with the stiff competition in microfinance.
